Hello, as a key stakeholder directly impacted by building and accessibility standards regulations, the Ministry of Government Relations is seeking your input on the following regulations:

- The Building and Accessibility Standards Administration Regulations; and
- The Uniform Building and Accessibility Standards Regulations.

This consultation work is one of the required steps of government's mandated 10-year regulatory red tape review. A final report of the consultations will be included in the documents presented to the Red Tape Review Committee.

To submit your comments, click on the link below. <https://survey.alchemer-ca.com/s3/50095596/Tackling-Red-Tape-in-The-Uniform-Building-and-Accessibility-Standards-Act-Regulations>

- Tackling Red Tape in The Uniform Building and Accessibility Standards Act Regulations

Please share the survey link with your members for their input as well.

The ministry will review the responses and report back on what we heard. After the survey closes at the end of February, a summary of the submissions and next steps will be posted on the website in April or May 2021.
